

GLASNER BROTHERS
INC.

2 West 56th Street

New York City

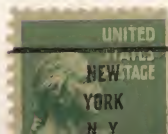

Fireplace Accessories - Mantels
Weather vanes - Decorative Metalwork
Lanterns - Hardware - Lighting Fixtures

Fireplace

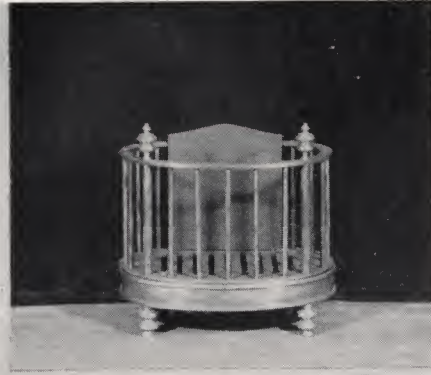

Mr. M. Morris Maxwell,
304 S. Murat Street,
New Orleans, La.

GLASNER BROTHERS INC.

403

500

405

408

G104

G105

No. 403—30½" wide. Back 26" high. A fine copy of a Chippendale grate with hand pierced apron$175.00

No. 408—31" wide. 32" high. An exquisite original 18th Century grate in brass. Hand cut apron, engraved jib panels with interesting old Dutch fireback $300.00 Reproduction.....$195.00

No. 500—17" wide. Back 16" high. A reproduction of an early oval basket grate in wrought iron with brass band, finials and feet in old brass$45.00

No. G104—34¼" wide. 39" high. All steel with decorative Dutch fireback. Richly engraved apron and jib panels. Urns and posts delicately ornamented$195.00

No. 405—27½" wide. Back 21½" high. In antique brass and steel with engraved bow panels$115.00

No. G105—29¾" wide. 35½" high. Antique brass, burnished steel fire basket. Hand pierced apron with applied embossed rosettes.....$185.00

Authentic reproductions of old andirons, skillfully executed and finished like the originals.

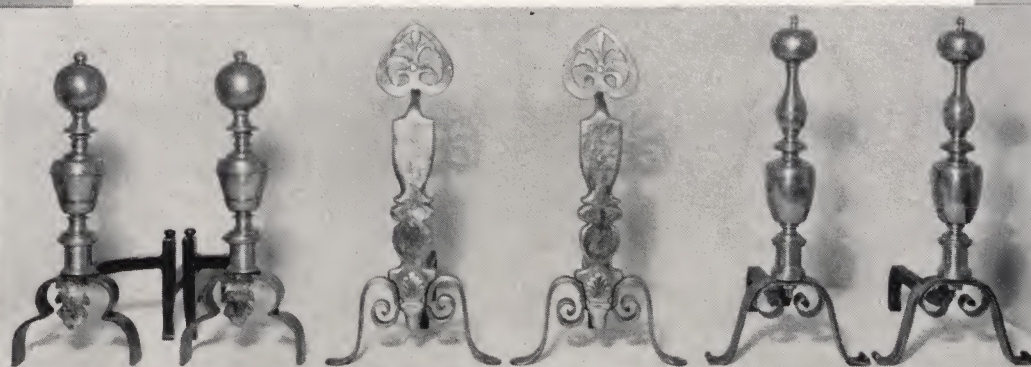

No. 101—25" high. An unusual copy of an early American andiron, in yellow cast brass, in an antique finish. Offset log bars.....$35.00
 No. 106—23" high. Shaft in brass, base in hand wrought iron, semi-polished finish. Offset log bars$85.00
 No. 113—25" high. A splendid example of an early andiron. Shaft in heavy plate forged brass, with hand pierced ornament supported on goose neck arm. Scroll base in semi-polished wrought iron$75.00
 No. 109—26" high. Gracefully proportioned shaft in brass, antique finish. Scroll base in forge finished wrought iron.....$85.00
 No. 112—24" high. Shaft and scroll base in highly burnished steel, with ball top, scroll finials and base shield in antique brass.....$80.00

101

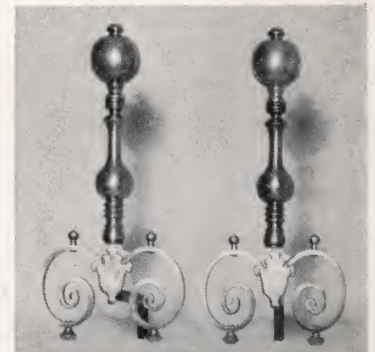

Wrought Iron
Fire Tongs
13½" long
$10.00

106

113

109

112

Oval Bedford
Firelighter & Tray $10.00
Antique brass

No. 303—Copy of an early American hinged fender in heavy brass 5" high. Suitable for openings up to 36" in width.....$30.00

No. 304—Antique steel serpentine fender, 47½" long, 5" high. Handsomely burnished $95.00

Reproduction in hand wrought brass, antique finish$100.00

No. G100—Antique steel bow fender 44" long, 6" high. Finely cut, with applied embossed trim and rosettes.....$165.00

No. 305—A rare serpentine fender in gun metal, 43¼" long, 5½" high. A very fine example of an 18th Century fender.....$225.00
Reproduction in hand cut brass.....$150.00

No. 306—Antique brass serpentine fender, 49¼" long, 5¼" high. Finely engraved. Ireland Circa 1780.....$170.00
Reproduction$125.00

No. 302—A handsome copy of an 18th Century fender, with engraved panels, 49¾" long, 5¾" high, 7" return. Can be had in gun metal or brass, antique finish.....$165.00

No. G101—A large antique brass bow fender, slightly arched, superbly designed and engraved. 59½" long, 8" high.....$185.00

No. G102—An old English brass kerb, lightly engraved. Has the original iron pan, supported on claw feet. 43" long, 7½" high $125.00

No. G103—Another example of an old kerb, in hand cut brass with engraved center panel. Has the original iron pan. 43½" long, 7" high$120.00

GLASNER BROTHERS INC.

No. 412—A fine copy of a simple early dog grate in antique brass and steel. 30" wide. 26" high....$140.00

No. 410—2'5½" wide. 2'8" high. An attractive old grate in brass. Ornamental iron fireback. Has original clay back lining. Fine old patina.....$300.00
Reproduction$170.00

No. 411—One of the finest examples of a plain grate, dependent entirely on the grace of line instead of ornamentation for its decorative qualities. Nothing as fine is likely to come into the market for a long time. The classical fireback has a slight crack, which has been skillfully repaired and in no way impairs the use of the grate.....$325.00

Reproduction 33½" wide x 31½" high.....$195.00

No. 413—2'9" wide. 2'5½" high. A very choice original Georgian grate, richly designed in brass and steel. Urns delicately ribbed, fluted posts, hand cut apron with applied embossed rosettes.....$325.00

Reproduction$225.00

No. 409—2'3½" wide. 2'4" high. An old brass dog grate, excellently proportioned in the simple lines of the late Georgian.....$275.00
Reproduction$150.00

Old English Coal Hods in Hand Wrought Copper.

No. G107—Scoop Scuttle$55.00

No. G108—Helmet Scuttle.....$55.00

No. G109—Old Dutch Copper Wood Pail, 12" high. 13½" diameter.....$55.00

No. G110—Old Dutch Brass and Copper Wood Pail, 15" high. 15" diameter..$60.00

No. G111—Helmet Scuttle$60.00

No. G112—Helmet Scuttle$50.00

No. G113—Helmet Scuttle$50.00

Subject to Prior Sale.

A copy of an attractive Georgian Mantel in Statuary Marble with Sienna facing, carved end blocks and center panel. Opening 36" x 36". Shelf 58" long, 46½" high$285.00

No. 402—Copy of a Georgian grate in antique brass and steel 31" wide x 27" high$135.00

No. 302—An unusually fine fender reproduced in hand pierced Gun Metal

A reproduction of a handsome Georgian mantel with green inlay in frieze and pilasters. Verde marble facing. Opening 36" x 36". Shelf 56¾" long, 46½" high$285.00

No. 601—Engraved brass Irish hob grate with polished steel basket bars 36" wide x 22¼" high$185.00

No. 602—An unusually fine fender reproduced in hand pierced Gun Metal with engraved panels. 49¾" long, 5¾" high, 7" returns.....$165.00

Fireplaces

A copy of an attractive Georgian facing, carved end blocks and cent long, 46½" high

No. 402—Copy of a Georgian grat
27" high

No. 302—An unusually fine fender reproduced in hand pierced Gun Metal with engraved panels. 49¾" long, 5¾" high, 7" returns.....

Digitized by:

ASSOCIATION FOR PRESERVATION TECHNOLOGY
www.apti.org

For the
BUILDING TECHNOLOGY HERITAGE LIBRARY
<https://archive.org/details/buildingtechnologyheritagelibrary>

From the collection of:

SOUTHEASTERN ARCHITECTURAL ARCHIVE
SPECIAL COLLECTIONS
HOWARD-TILTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

<http://seaa.tulane.edu>

Georgian mantel with green inlay in frieze
ing. Opening 36" x 36". Shelf 56¾" long,
.....$285.00

No. 001—Engraved brass Irish hob grate with polished steel basket bars
36" wide x 22¼" high

.....$185.00

.....$165.00